

Novotel Forest Resort Creswick keeps ANZAC spirit alive with charitable Golf Day

The Novotel Forest Resort will be hosting a Single Stableford Golf Day on Saturday the 26th of April at the Forest Resort Championship Golf Course at Creswick in Victoria. In addition, the Resort will be extending a special accommodation to offer RSL and RSA members.

The golf event will be in honour of Jeff McMillan, a well known and highly respected Creswick Community member and one of the first Vietnam Veterans to be President of an RSL club in Australia. The charity Golf Day will be open to all ages and level of expertise and will help raise funds for RSL, Legacy, Redcross and the Creswick Light horse Brigade.

This inaugural event will not only raise money for these important charities it is also a way to respectfully recognise ANZAC Day, a day to commemorate the significant contribution and sacrifice made by Australians and New Zealanders during times of war.

The Resort's General Manager Jessie Sheehan said:

"Australian's know how much is owed for the great sacrifice that was made to secure this nations freedom. It's important we continue to do whatever we can to ensure Anzac Day is one of the most significant days of the year in our community. This Charity Golf Day is a way our local community, golf lovers and those who just want to have a bit of fun, to band together and raise some much needed funds for some great causes."

The Resort will be running accommodation specials for RSL and RSA members who would like to stay with a limited number of rooms available from $80 per night for Friday through to Sunday.

For those extending their stay for the weekend, there will be many activities including a Dawn Service on the ANZAC Day and a Presentation for golfers with handicaps and those who will be playing socially followed by a traditional "Mess Dinner.
