

INVITATION

“CAN INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS HELP BUILD YOUR EXPORT BUSINESS?”

Study Melbourne and City of Melbourne invite you to participate in a festival event this August and to access a range of new skills, information and ideas that are on offer.

This session will provide practical ideas and information for anyone looking to improve the business export opportunities through engaging with international students.

Gain insights on how engaging international students and graduates in your business can help build your exports, competitiveness and reduce costs.

Speakers at this forum include employers that have built successful businesses by engaging international students and graduates, as well as experts in navigating skilled migration and employment regulations and red tape. Contacts to help you access high quality students and graduates will also be on hand.

Event details

Date: Wednesday 13 August
Time: 6.00pm – 8.00pm
Venue: The Supper Room, Melbourne Town Hall

Refreshments will be provided.

To register for this event

Please register online. The details of this event/s can be found at:

<https://services.business.vic.gov.au/ems/search.do?searchModeType=search&type=search>

Small Business Festival Victoria

The festival offers hundreds of low-cost and free events throughout Victoria covering a range of topics from business and financial planning, through to marketing, social media, innovation, franchising and exporting.

Whether you are looking to develop your business or are starting from scratch, there are a series of events on the program that are designed to assist you.

Details about Small Business Festival Victoria, including event bookings and how to get the free festival event program, can be found at: business.vic.gov.au/festival – or call 13 22 15.

<http://www.business.vic.gov.au/>